MEDICINAL.

How Will She End?

Just budding into womanhood, so fresh, so fair and fine that we turn to watch her as she passes, she trips along the street a picture of health and beauty. Among the passing crowd of worn and wrinkled women, she looks a being from another world. Will she ever be like them? Could they once have been as fair as she? No beauty can last under the strain and drain of female weakness, from which the majority of women suffer in a greater or less degree. They might preserve their fairness of face and form if they would cure the disastrous diseases which affect the womanly organs. Women are cured of such diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It stops the enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, cures bearing-down pains, strengthens the nervous system, and restores the general health. It contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness," writes Mrs. M. H. Wallace, of Munster, Cook Co., Texas. "I tried four doctors, but none did me any good. I followed your advice and took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and of his Golden Medical Discovery. I now feel like a new woman. I have gained eighteen pounds."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many remedies and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Col. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have in twenty years." And son, Edgar of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs.

NOW THE WHIST FACE.

We have all sorts of faces, all varieties of countenances, and get their recognized expressions from close application to some variety of straining employment. Now we have "the whist face" to add to the list. It is showing itself among the women, and comes from the whist club habit, which is rapidly growing, showing its strength not only at night, but in the afternoon, and even in the morning, associated with tea and wafers, chocolate and bonbons.

Expression of the whist face, though it is said, and is told with an effort, is, says. The women may shudder at the thought, but the fact remains. Intense thought and daily racking the memory to remember what cards have been played cannot but deepen the face lines and hasten what heretofore the women have left for time to accomplish without their permission.

In the whist face you will see the far-away look, accompanied by arched lines on the forehead, suddenly changing to an expression of inward contemplation, associated with a lightening of the lips. These expressions come from an acrobatic mind under training that consists in leaping from the first lead, jump by jump, over each successive play, to the ultimate end of the game, play that must be made, while keeping the mental eye on the accepted rules, not neglecting to observe and respond to signals.

Nature can recover from this sort of thing when occasionally indulged in, but when it becomes a habit, practiced almost daily, and sometimes for two or more sessions a day, the expression becomes fixed, and follows the wearer, no matter what her thought or occupation may be at the time.

BOUGHT HIS OWN PRESENT.—Representative Landis of Indiana has decided to lay in a supply of presents for the wedding anniversaries of his constituents. He believes he can save money by doing so. "One of the most influential colored men in my district," he said, "recently celebrated his silver wedding. I was in Washington when the happy event came round, but got a cordial invitation from the old man to attend it. I sent him a warm letter of congratulation as I could compose, and told him how sorry I was to be separated from the joyous event by distance and official duties, and wished him several other twenty-five anniversaryes. I thought that would be the last of it. Several days after the celebration I received a letter from a friend in the same town who said that he was 'pleased to notice a very handsome set of pearl-handled silver knives and forks from you among the presents.' I thought this friend had been kind enough to fix the matter up for me and wrote him a letter of thanks for his friendly contribution. Having occasion to go back to town for a few days one of the first men I saw at the station was old Zuch, the silver wedding man. 'When you get time,' he said, 'I'd like to have a little talk with you.' 'All right,' I said, 'what's the matter?' 'Well,' he replied, 'after a little hesitation, you see I had my silver wedding the other day. You wasn't present. I was very sorry to observe. But I knew you wanted to be represented, so I done fixed it up myself. The knives and forks cost $8.50, and Mr. Landis you can pay for 'em whenever you feel that you can spare the money.'"

A Testimonial From Old England.—"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses and heals the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and cures Catarrh easily and pleasantly. Cold in the head vanishes quickly. Price 50 cents at drug stores or by mail.

Catarrh caused difficulty in speaking and to a great extent loss of hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Attorney at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

Beauty Is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Casca's Candy Cathartic cleans your blood and keeps it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly yellow complexion by taking Casca's.—bounty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy." Mr. T. K. Houseman, Maunawney, Pa.

BISHOPS MEET THE CARDINAL.—

Yesterday was the day for the meeting of the bishops of the Catholic Archdiocese of Baltimore, and Bishop Monaghan, of Wilmington, Del., and Bishop Van de Vyver, of Richmond, called at the cardinal's residence. The bishops are supposed to meet their metropolitan three or four times a year to consult with him in regard to the interests and needs of their dioceses. The bishops of Wheeling, Charleston, Savannah, St. Augustine, and the vicar apostolic of North Carolina were prevented by business engagements from being present at the meeting yesterday. Bishop P. J. Donahue, of Wheeling, W. Va., is expected to call on the cardinal before the end of the week. Bishops Monaghan and Van de Vyver took dinner with the cardinal, and left in the evening for home.
